Volume 1 is mainly explanatory text with an "Introduction générale" by the author dated "Juin 1887". V2-6, each with half-title only, are mainly plates accompanied by descriptive text and were published in 20 "livraisons", 1877-1886. Plates are arranged as follows: L'antiquité classique, pl 1-59; Le monde en dehors de l'Europe, pl 60-180; Les peuples chrétiens à partir des Byzantins, pl 181-410; L'Europe des temps modernes par nationalités distinctes, pl 411-500
The edition described above is known as the small or "petite" edition. The same text and plates were published at the same time in a larger edition, folio size, usually described as the "grande édition". The only difference is in the size of the page and the color of the paper. Plates are printed from the same lithograph plates, but in the "grande édition" they are on tinted paper
